Discipleship Study
Questions

Philippians

We live in a country that is divided by social and political issues. All around us is the evidence of division – in our families, our country, our culture, and even the church. How are God’s people supposed to live in these tension-filled times? The letter of Paul to the church in Philippi provides answers and gives direction. The Philippian church existed in its own hotbed of cultural and political tension. Paul encouraged them to lean into the tension with a specific mindset of Jesus, who humbled himself by consider the needs of others before his own. If we adopt this same mindset of humility as God’s people, we can ease the tension and fight for unity in the midst of division. Whose thinking and way of life should we follow? Paul makes the case for it to be Jesus – and we need Him now more than ever.

Individual: Read the passage from two or three different translations.

Group: Have two different group members read the passage using different Bible translations.

Speak the Scripture:

Group: Work through the Digging Deeper questions as a group, celebrating the work God is already doing in each person’s life, and encouraging each other to trust Him in the places that need growth.

Small Group Guidelines

This is a Safe Group

Confidentiality is key—what is said in the group stays in the group. Be aware how you are affecting the environment with your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. This needs to be a place where people feel comfortable opening up and sharing.

No Crosstalk

Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations, phone time, texting etc.

Listen

Let's value one another by listening to what is being shared. Allow a pause after someone shares to allow them to finish and others to consider what was said. Eye contact and body posture play key roles in creating a positive or negative group environment.

No Rescuing or Fixing

We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Avoid the tendency to rescue when someone is struggling to get the words out or shares a struggle or conviction.

Use "I" Statements

It's easy to talk about the issues of others, or respond with "we," "us," or "the church," but for us to grow as disciples and build relationships, we want to use "I" statements.

Don't Over-Talk

We want to create time for all members of the group to participate in the discussion. Be careful not to always be the first responder or regularly give long responses.

Fight for Relationship

It's not if conflict or hurt feelings will happen, but when. We commit to fight for relationship with each other. Go to the person and share your struggle or seek wise advice if you are not sure how to handle the conflict.

Week 12

Background: Paul ends his letter with a thank you to the Philippians that balances his gratitude for their gift with his desire to make sure they know their friendship is more than material support. He also wants them to know that following Jesus is more than receiving gifts but learning how to be content even when they have nothing.

Read: Philippians 4:10-23

Discovery Questions:

What do we learn about God in this passage?

What do we learn about what it means to be a follower of Christ in this passage?

What do you think the Holy Spirit might be teaching you personally through this passage?

Is there anything God is leading you to do after reading this passage?

Digging Deeper:

How did Paul learn the secret to contentment? What does that mean for us?

What is the context of verse 13? What are “all things” Paul is able to do through Christ?

What is Paul’s desire for the Philippian church? What is he seeking for them?

How does God get glory when we are generous?

How can you remind yourself in your greatest times of need that your greatest needs have already been met in the gospel?

End this time with a prayer.

Heavenly Father, you give us such good gifts, and so many good gifts, but sometimes all we can see is what we don't have. Give us the eyes to see how generous you are with us, that you have supplied everything we need. Give us the heart to live joyfully and to be generous with others. Help us to trust that you will supply everything we need, according to the riches in Glory of Christ Jesus. To You be glory forever and ever. In Jesus' name, Amen.
